WILLIAMS RAPS CITY NEWSPAPERS

Attorney-General Says
They Have Never Given Him Credit

In the Himseritation came the farmer in the Himseritation came the this State. He was in the Senate and never introduced but one meritorious bill, and that failed to get through. Yet the papers praise Machen to the skies, say unkind things about Ellyson, and ridicule me.

size the importance of primary elections. The fault in Virginia is not so much in lack of law as in lack of the National, which was repaired by Colonel Mans, is again in ruins for a great part of the distance.

The promoters of the "lean" have been unable to sell the remaining $50,000, of the promoters of the "lean" have been unable to sell the remaining $50,000, of the promoters of the "lack of the National, which was repaired by Colonel Mans, is again in ruins for a great part of the distance.

There is no radical alteration in the study of the matrix of the National, which was repaired by Colonel Mans, is again in ruins for a great

"The law that carries out the wishes of the people in ninety-nine counties, if properly executed, can be made to carry it out in the one hundredth county of Norfolk A more vital question which Mr. Pollard relagates to recently on the land ownership questions which Mr. Pollard relagates to recently on the land ownership questions. It is that of the recently on the land ownership questions which Mr. Pollard relagates to recently on the land ownership questions.

Judge Williams said that his competitor from Ginter Park, Mr. Pollard, had said he wanted enough votes in Richmond to offset the votes cast against him elsewhere. He regretted to see a move to array the country against the city. As a Mr. Cumming's promise to aid in preparing a plan of tax reform, if elected, Judge Williams said that the Attorney-General had all he could do to attend to his own business without instructing the Lagrantees. ness without instructing the Legisla-ture or taking one side in regard to of attack made on me? I appeal to of poor circumstances, and no clue as to their identity has yet been obtained.

DENIES MONOPOLY OF TRADE the State debt case I found that at-for seventy years. The compromise won for the State $150,000 and for the cities and counties $173,000. The city of Richmond was paid $57,000 in back taxes. The press of the city, in giving accounts of that case, have never given credit or mentioned my name favor-ably. Can my fellow-citizen, the Mayor of Ginter Park, claim that he has ever done as much for Richmond?

Lime-Grinding Case.

H. M. Smith, Jr., appeared for J. Thompson Brown, saying that he had been his college mate at the University wide prohibition, and am not afraid to state my position either."

Mr. Cumming Spenks.

been his conege mate at the University of Virginia, and his associate for fourteen years on the board of State Agricultural College, at Blacksburg.

whole cloth.

"Mr. Pollard has seen fit to emphasize the importance of primary electrons. The fault in Virginia is not so its last issue that it is more convinced much in lack of law as in lac

KILLS TWO WOMEN

dically be called on to interpret. It had been the unwritten law, he said, to re-elect the Attorney-General for a second term when he desired it, and had made good. He had not heard of any unkind criticism of any act he had performed, though he had dealt with some of the most important and difficult problems the State has faced. "I have no newspapers to puff me," he said, "but a record of four years of hard work, A certain editorial said that Mr. Pollard had more ability than Mr. Pollard had more ability than them, the combined I asked Mr. Pollard had more ability than Mr. Cumming and myself combined. I asked Mr. Pollard had more caught by the east-bound passenger train, which pas

the State debt case I found that attorneys had prepared the case with wonderful skill and ability, and I secured the services of former Attorney-General Anderson without it costing Virginia one cent, and we won the case to the tune of some seven millions of dollars

"In the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac case, I found Major Anderson ready to go on with it when I came into office, and with the Governor's consent I secured his services, and we won that case against a railroad which had been fighting taxation.

Kodnk Company's Answer to Government's Congent is charge that the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination in restraint of trade was made in the company's answer to the petition for dissolution filed by the government last month. The answer has just been filed in United States district court in Buffalo.

The company's Answer to Government's charge that the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination in restraint of trade is well as the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination in restraint of trade was made in the company's answer to the petition for dissolution filed by the government last month. The answer has just been filed in United States district court in Buffalo.

The company's Answer to Government's charge that the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination in restraint of trade in the company's answer to the petition for dissolution filed by the government last month. The answer has just been filed in United States of istrict court in Buffalo.

The company's Answer to Government's charge that the Hastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination.

Rochester, N. Y. July 17.—General denial of the government's charge that the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination.

Rochester, N. Y. July 17.—General denial of the government's charge that the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination.

Rochester, N. Y. July 17.—General denial of the government's charge that the Eastman Kodak Company is an unlawful combination.

Drug and Liquor Habits Can Be Cured

Are you addicted to the use of drugs and liquor? If you were offered a positive guarantee of a cure would you not consider it, knowing as you do the ultimate ruin to which the continued use of the drug and the excessive use of alcohol will lead?

We offer such a cure—we GUARANTEE TO CURE OR ACCEPT

NO PAY. Drug and liquor addictions are merely a form of disease, and we treat them as such. By a logical method, both harmless and painless, amid delightful surroundings, you are brought to a state of perfect health. When ready to go you no longer have the longing—you yourself are the judge to as whether you are cured.

No other institution can or will make the offer we do. For full information address

The Dr. H. L. Devine Sanitarium, Inc. 200 North Fourth Avenue, Highland Park, Richmond, Va. Dr. George F. Bagby, Medical Director.

OF AMBASSADOR

other agricultural agencies of the State, but thought it was mere jealousy on the part of the Planter, because he sent out too much free literature to the farmers.

H. M. Smith, Jr., appeared for J. pean capitals. Limantour hoping that the moral effect of the inquiry and the joint representation of the unrest there would serve to hasten the possible

Mr. Cumming Speaks.

S. Gordon Cumming, candidate for Attorney-General, called attention to the large number of State officers from the Ninth District, and to the fact that for the past forty years Tidewater Virginia has not had repersentation among the elective offices of the Commonwealth.

"I want to take this opportunity," said Mr. Cumming, "to put forever at rest any intimation from wantever that I will withdraw from this contest. I will be in the race until the night of August 5, when I expect to receive the nomination. If you hear any of the constantly circulated any of the constantly circulated whole cloth.

"Mr. Pollard has seen fit to emplay the Common of the factors and the complete of the past to the factors and the past to the factors and to much perinted matter than the past forty years station, such as was proposed by Mr. Tidewater Virginia has not had reported the fact that for the past forty years station, such as was proposed by Mr. Tidewater Virginia has not had reported the fact that for the past forty years at the form of the fact that for the past forty years station, such as was proposed by Mr. Tidewater Virginia has not had reported the fact that for the past forty years station, such as was proposed by Mr. Three had been too much perinted matter than the form of the facts and constitute one of the fact that there was now more uncultable form of the facts and clubs conversation differences in it, and in the cafes and clubs conversation differences in the fact that there was now more uncultable form of the facts with the fact and in the cafes and clubs conversation differences in the fact that there was now more uncultable form of the fact that there was now more uncultable form of the facts will be a money-making scheme, in which same vein have also been published at Nogales, Ariz, July 17.—Three states the tevetations of the facts will be fact that the the defense of the constitute one of the facts will be fact that the target in the facts will constitute one of the facts will be fact th second place is that of tax reform. I have not fully studied Auditor Moore's plan, but I believe in the principle of segregation as most compatible with local self government."

Has All He Can Do.

Judge Williams said that his competitor from Ginter Park, Mr. Pollard, had said he wanted enough votes in Richmond to offset the votes cast against him elsewhere. He regretted which foreign power had in- districts, made representations was generally accepted as removing that country from the list. The report that the situation had been discussed by representatives of the powers in Paris yesterday seemed to strengthen the belief that France was interested.

French Interests in Mexico.

It was pointed out that the French have heavy interests in Mexico. Prench investors are said to have heavy interests are said to have heavy holdings of Mexican railroad securities. Great Britain's interests are said to be principally in the national railways and in mining. Germany's Interests are said to le largely in agriculture and a nation-wide hardware business.

The State is practically deserted except for the Federals and rebels.

Between here and Cuernavaca there has been erected in the past week a manual salary of $12,000 for the Secretary of State is not sufficient to maintain him and his family in a manual salary of $12,000 for the Secretary of State is not sufficient to maintain him and his family in the high office, would you advocate an increase in that salary?"

This question was asked William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of State.

Vera Cruz has furnished uneasiness of the presence in that State of rebel bands near the Mexican and interoceanic railways, the only outlets in mining. Germany's Interests are said to be principally in the national railways and in mining. Germany's Interests are said to be principally in the national railways and in mining. Germany's Interests are said to be principally in the national railways and in mining. Germany's Interests are said to be principally in the national railways and in mining. Germany's Interests are said to be principally in the national railways and in mining. Germany's Interests are said to be principally in the national railways and interoceanic railways, the only outlets of rebel bands near the Mexican and interoceanic railways the only outlets of rebel bands near the Mexican and interoceanic railways and interoceanic railways and interoceanic railways and interoceanic railways a to the polls, but that if any attempt is made to hold an election by Mexicans awed by Huerta, it will be illegal, as the Constitution of Mexico provides that no elections can be held unless the country is at peace, and that the Constitutionalists will not recognize the results of such an election.

State Department officials said today that the protest of Governor Carranza, leader of the Constitutionalists, against the recognition of the Huerta government, had not yet been received. It is understood that Governor Carranza combines his protest with a pe-tition that he and his followers be recognized as a faction in de facto control of a portion of the country. The agent of the "Constitutionalists"

Fear Moral Support. Diplomatists here point out that the recognition of such rights by the United States would be taken by the Huerta regime as a demonstration of

Among the tests which would be isfying claims made by Americans for losses sustained,

The northern portion of the state of San Luis Potosi is in the possession of the revolutionists, who also con-trol the railroad to the north of Wad-Broad, at Second Street, Richmond, Va. ments, thoughts and arguments.

Germany Denies It.

Berlin, July 17.—The Foreign Office denied to-day that Germany has de-manded that the United States govern-ment protect foreign interests in Mex-ico. Germany has not taken any di-absence grow worse, is considered un- to-day.

Many Mexicans appear to regard inwould serve to hasten the possible recognition of Huerta by the United States.

It is stated that when the details of have devoted considerable space edista

The recent so-called "loan" to Mexico by a syndicate of foreign bankers is declared to have been a farce. The reditors received 6 per cent bonds at the National, which was repaired by the National, which was repaired by the National Wass, is again in ruins for a Nearly All States Affected.

both of which are owned by French in-terests, for whom Limantour is said to have been acting in Paris since he has been expatriated there for the past two would have to planalmETAOIN..... would be left to him for the comple would be left to him for the comple-tion of his program in the presidential campaign. Approximately a month will be occupied in the trip to Japan know I am right, and I shall proceed and another mouth in the return, and accordingly. My statement of a few it will be necessary not to discredit the mission by too much haste in leaving Tokyo.

days ago still stands."

"Then you will continue to deliver Chautauqua lectures?"

There has never been any secret of all Mexicans are in sympathy with To Those Having $100 moral support to the rebellion and of censure upon the provisional govern-

Among the tests which would be applied in considering the merits of Carranza's petition would be whether an actual de facto political organization exists among the insurgents sufficient to constitute it is left to itself, an entity capable of discharging the duties and obligations of a state among the nations.

If the Carranza government should receive recognition, the Huerta government might be absolved from satisfying claims made by Americans for ley, according to a State Department dispatch received to-day. Consul Edwards reports that conditions are quiet at Acapulco.

THE CRAFTS PIANO CO., The Richmond Victor Depot,

about the desire of General Diaz to stand for the President, and that he should be a candidate was part of the agreement entered into by him with President Huerta as the price of peace in the capital.

President Huerta insists that the elections will be held, but if they are, there is yet in sight no man whose popularity is sufficiently general to make his election at all certain, unless the control of the control

Wireless Is Installed.

Nogales, Ariz., July 17.—Three sets of wireless apparatus are being installed by the United States Army Signature.

Recent Loan a Farce.

Secont Loan a Farce.

Secont so-called "loan" to Mexas syndicate of foreign bankers a syndicate of foreign bankers ared to have been a farce. The secolved 6 per cent bonds at eu of cash for their claims, but moters of the "loan" have been to sell the remaining $50,000,-orth of bonds authorized for rany part of them, and it is it that they will not be able to

By appointing General Diaz to this mission, President Huerta appears to have eliminated him, temporarily at least, from the politics of Mexico. He expected to have on Saturday, and the President, when formally conferring the honor on him to-day, said that he hoped that he would return to Mexico in time to be a candidate in the presidential election which is called for October 26.

General Diaz, however, would have to plan his trip carefully so that time would have to planalmETAOIN.....

And you with the "Yes, the premiums are fixed charges. "Yes, the premiums are fixed charges. The same and takes an office, he leaves behind him at his old home expenses which he cannot avoid. Every man in public life knows that I am not delivering lectures with a view to adding to my accumulations. I am working to meet my old age and for my family. I cannot expect to be a bread-winner when infirmities of age overtake me.

"However, I do not care to make de-

"However, I do not care to make de-

"Yes, and the public service will suf-fer no injury. My engagements are such that they can be canceled at a moment's notice. I shall not be far moment's notice. I shall not be far from Washington at any time. I can return in a few hours if necessary."

Mr. Bryan was asked if the recall of Ambassador Wilson from Mexico is permanent. He said that he was not in a position to discuss official matters while absent from Washington.

The subject of Mr. Bryan's lecture here to-day was "The Making of a here to-day was "The Making of a Man." It was delivered in the big au-ditorium tent. Over 1,000 summer residents and natives paid $1, 75 cents and 25 cents each for admission to the tent. The total receipts were far in excess of the $250 which was paid Mr. Bryan. The receipts would have been larger but for the thunderstorm and rains which visited the mountain throughout which visited the mountain throughout the afternoon.

The audience listened with close attention to Mr. Bryan's speech, and frequently broke out in applause. The lecture was the first of a regular course to be delivered here during the summer season. For nearly two hours Mr. Bryan thrilled his audience with a sermon teeming with deepest religious senti-

THE INVALID'S DRINK

Doctors prescribe Radio-Active Fonticello for convalescents-and in many other treatments-because it is so palatable, rapidly assimilated and highly

RADIO ACTIVE

Fonticello Mineral Water

is the ideal drink for those whose work is more or less sedentary. It is welcomed on all occasions. Drink NINE glasses daily and enjoy increased

Your druggist has Fonticello. Ask him for it.

DO HEAVY DAMAGE

Wheeling, W. Va., July 17.—The Southwestern section of West Virginia knowledge that the secretary of the embassy. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, will remain.

Looks for Intervention.

That the ambassador will make a plea for recognition, except possibly in some modified or indirect form, is open to doubt; that he will advocate intervention, unless conditions during his absence grow worse, is considered unable to doubt. people living in the valleys to flee for their lives, as streams were out of their banks and sending a great volume of water down upon the low-lying country. The operators themselves were forced to flee for their lives. All communication with the devastated region has been cut off. There have been no reports of loss of life thus far. The towns of Viola and Majorsville were hard hit. At these points Big and Little Wheeling Creeks rose rapidly and overflowed a large section of the country.

OFFICERS TO-DAY

che denounced bitterly the inaction resident Wilson and his Cabinet in ng to recognize the Huerta adistration, and said that he was ing this country because Henry e Wilson has been recalled from loc City. He declared vehemently Mexico is too big a country to treated as she has been by Secrebry, and that any loss of life property was due to the lethargy he powers in Washington.

ESNT ADVOCATE

SALARY INCREASE

Charlotte N. C., July 17.—The second day's session of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association was devoted principally to hearing reports of the several committees and in greports of the several committees and in greports of the several committees and solid them the resolutions committee, which will report at the final session to-morrow. At this session the election of officers and selection of place of next meeting will also engage the attention of the association.

Charlotte N. C., July 17.—The second day's session of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association was devoted principally to hearing reports of the several committees and greyors of the resolutions committee, which will report at the final session to-morrow. At this session the election of officers and selection of place of next the association.

Charlotte N. C., July 17.—The second day's possession of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association was devoted principally to hearing reports of the several committees and greyors of the several committees and greyors of the several committees and selection of place of next the association of place of next the association.

Charlotte N. C., July 17.—The second day's possession of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association was devoted principally to hearing reports of the several committees and greyors of the several committees and gre

The bonded trustees in executive session and instructed Chief Roach that the Mayor had no such authority. The fight began during a street car strike here last fall, and the feeling between the labor and business interests is growing tense. a pool of blood. Of its 3,500 inhabitants, only 150 remained. A great number of the little villages along the route taken by the fleeing army were the scenes of like atrocities."

DENY SHOOTING THEIR ASSAILANT

Italian Attacks Couple Only to Fall With Bullet in Heart.

New Tork, July 17.—Samuel deLucca, of 353 Ninth Avenue, was walking along 114th Street with his wife to-night when a man who had followed them for several blocks suddenly plunged a knife into deLucca's neck. Mrs. deLucca tried to help her husband, who had grappled with his assallant, when the latter shashed at her, inflicting a deep wound on the side of her head.

At that momen the man with the knife suddenly straightened up, staggered a few steps and fell to the sidewalk. When an ambulance surgeon arrived from Harlem Hospital he found that he was dead. He had been shot through the heart.

DeLucca and his wife protested that neither of them had fired the shot that ended the life of their assallant, who was latticed the life of their assallant, who was latticed the life of their assallant, who was found on them or near the scene of the shooting. They declared they know of no reason for Calabara's attack. Both were taken to the Harlem Hospital to have their wounds dressed. Inspector Kahn nade an investigation. At the end of an hour he ordered deLucca placed under arrest. The grounds for the arrest he would not disclose.

Fire at Wilmington.
Wilmington. N. C., July 17.—Fire of unknown origin broke out to-night in the warehouse of James I. Metts & Son. the warehouse of James I. Metts & Son, merchandise brokers, on the river front, and destroyed $40,000 of property, fully covered by insurance. Warehouses of the Metts concern and T. C. Covington & Company, wholesale molasses dealers, were completely wiped out. The revenue cutter Seminole and Clyde line steamer Cherokee rendered great assistance. The schooner Benjamin F. Poole, discharging a cargo of molasses, was towed to safety.

GIVES LIFE FOR BALL GAME

Youngster Catches Fly, but Falls in River and Drowns.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 17.—In racing for a fly knocked to him in a game of baseball on a brush lot, John Zupa, eleven years old, caught the ball which retired the side and saved the day for his club, but in making the catch he toppled over the bank of the Susquehanna River and was drowned.

Youngsters of the village were engaged in a lively ball game. The club with which Zupa played was ahead, but the comestition had two players on bases. with which Zupa played was ahead, but the opposition had two players on bases and two out. A fly ball was knocked to Zupa in left field, and he ran and caught it at the edge of the bank, re-tiring the side, but giving up his life.

POLICE CHIEF REINSTATED

Efforts of the Mayor of Jacksonville, Fla., Defled.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 17.—Defying Mayor Swearingen in his effort to carry out pre-election promises to depose Captain of Police Roach, acting chief of the department, the bond trustees, representing the business side of the political fight against the labor faction, yesterday reinstated Captain Roach and made him chief of the force. Other members of the department were promoted to fill vacancies, First Lieutenant Hail being made captain. Mayor Swearingen retaliated by sending another order of suspension to the now Chief Roach.

The bonded trustees immediately met in executive session and instructed that Toward had no

Use Electricity in Your Home It is Convenient, Cheap, and Always Ready

If you have Electric Light you don't have to go about in the dark looking for matches.

Don't move in any house that is not wired for electricity. Any house can be wired at a small cost, and you can have all of the electrical conveniences.

After August 1, 1913, we will not sell Heating Appliances or Mazda Lamps. These can be purchased from your electrical contractor.

Phone Madison No. 3400.

Virginia Railway and Power Co.

Seventh and Franklin Streets.